Junior (B1-B2)

I. Read the text. For each question (1-5), choose the correct answer.

Child Narrators

Child narrators offer a unique perspective in literature, providing readers with an innocent yet insightful lens through which to view the world. Their voices often reflect a blend of curiosity, honesty, and vulnerability, capturing the complexities of childhood experiences. This narrative style can illuminate themes of growth, loss, and the transition from innocence to experience.

Authors often employ child narrators to create a sense of immediacy and authenticity. Through their limited understanding and straightforward observations, readers are invited to see the world in fresh, unfiltered ways. This can lead to profound emotional resonance, as the simplicity of a child's perspective often reveals deeper truths about human nature and societal issues.

Classic examples include Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird, where Scout Finch navigates her understanding of morality and justice, and Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, where Huck's adventures expose the hypocrisy of adult society.

Overall, child narrators enrich literature by challenging readers to reconsider their own perceptions and experiences. Their unique voices serve as a powerful reminder of the complexities of growing up, making their stories both relatable and impactful across generations.

1. Traditionally, child narrators are regarded as
   A) voices that employ a gloomy tone. B) innocent and genuine.
   C) devoid of the depth needed to explore serious themes.
2. Child narrators often demonstrate
   A) simple yet thought-provoking views. B) deeply intricate observations.
   C) most complex interpretations.
3. As expressed by child narrators, ideas are meant to
   A) be dismissed as puerile and insignificant.
   B) be a mirror of serious issues that define society.
   C) contradict ingrained social phenomena.
4. Twain's child narrator
   A) calls out the flaws of the grown-ups around him.
   B) praises the morality of the society he is part of.
   C) is portrayed in a less convincing fashion than Lee's narrator.
5. Readers of such fiction
   A) are meant to be witness to the complex process of becoming an adult.
   B) are more often than not disappointed by the choice of narrator.
   C) have to activate most complex reading strategies to make sense of the narrative.

II. Read the first sentence. For the second sentence, choose the best answer for each gap (6-10) so that the meaning stays the same.

6. Some people are finding it difficult to adjust to texting rather than writing emails.
   Some people can't … to texting rather than writing emails.
   A) get used B) be bothered C) accustom

7. Many people regard him as the best tenor today.
   He … the best tenor today.
   A) is regarded to have been B) is reputed to be C) is thought to have been

8. If I had a say in it, I would ban chewing gum in class.
   If it … I would ban chewing gum in class.
   A) was up to me, B) were the norm, C) would be my choice,

9. He regrets not going to college.
   He wishes … to college.
   A) he went B) to go C) he had gone

10. The alarm woke them up.
    If the alarm … they would have remained asleep.
    A) hadn't gone off, B) didn't go off, C) wouldn't have gone off,

III. For each question (11-15), read and choose the best answer.

11. How's your new job going?
    A) All good. It's an inside job.
    B) I can breathe more easily; the job was great.
    C) So far so good. I'm just getting my feet wet.

12. I think we should come up with a plan B.
    A) Of course. We have killed two birds with one stone.
    B) Good point. Let us not put all our eggs in one basket.
    C) Not really. The vaccine only covers a Type A influenza virus.

13. Are we still on for dinner tonight?
    A) You bet! I wouldn't miss it for the world.
    B) Let me check the power outlet.
    C) Sure thing! You wouldn't catch me dead.

14. I can't believe how hard this exam is.
    A) Just let it thaw. B) Yes. A piece of cake.
    C) Well, you've got to roll with the punches.

15. I heard you're working on a new project.
    A) Yup, since the dawn of man.
    B) Yes, it is over the hill.
    C) Yup, just trying to get the ball rolling.

IV. Read the text. For each space (16-25), choose the best answer.

The Importance of Studying Literature for Teenagers Today

In an age dominated by digital media and instant communication, the study of literature remains a … (16) aspect of education for teenagers. Engaging with literature not only fosters a love for reading but also equips young people with essential skills and insights that are vital in today's complex world.

Literature encourages teenagers to think critically and analyse various texts. By … (17) themes, characters, and narratives, students learn to interpret different perspectives and understand complex ideas. This analytical skill is transferable … (18) numerous fields, helping teens navigate challenges in academics, careers, and everyday life.

Reading diverse literary works exposes teenagers to experiences and cultures different … (19) their own. This exposure triggers empathy, allowing them to understand and relate to the emotions and struggles of others. As they … (20) characters facing various challenges, students develop a deeper emotional intelligence, essential for building meaningful relationships and engaging in their communities.

Literature serves … (21) a window into different cultures, historical contexts, and societal issues. For teenagers, understanding these diverse backgrounds can shape their worldview and help them navigate an … (22) globalised society. Moreover, literature often addresses themes of identity, allowing teens to reflect on their own experiences and understand their place in the world.

Exposure to literature stimulates creativity and imagination. Reading fiction, poetry, and drama encourages teens to think outside the box and explore new ideas. This creative thinking is essential not only in artistic … (23) but also in problem-solving across various disciplines.

In the often chaotic lives of teenagers, literature can provide an important escape. Engaging with stories allows them to disconnect from their daily pressures and … (24) themselves in different worlds. This mental break can promote relaxation and contribute to overall well-being.

Studying literature offers teenagers invaluable skills and insights that extend far … (25) the classroom. From enhancing critical thinking and empathy to improving communication and creativity, the benefits of engaging with literary works are profound. As society continues to evolve, encouraging a love for literature among young people is essential for developing informed, compassionate, and capable individuals ready to tackle the challenges of the future.

16.	A) excruciating	B) crucial	C) extinct	D) crimson
17.	A) exploiting	B) exonerating	C) exterminating	D) exploring
18.	A) at	B) for	C) in	D) to
19.	A) from	B) by	C) for	D) off
20.	A) encounter	B) encourage	C) endanger	D) entrust
21.	A) as	B) on	C) like	D) such
22.	A) increasingly	B) increasing	C) increased	D) increase
23.	A) suits	B) persuasions	C) pursuits	D) suites
24.	A) emerge	B) immerse	C) escape	D) impress
25.	A) behind	B) between	C) beyond	D) before

V. For each sentence (26-30), choose the correctly-spelled word to complete each gap.

26. As the year 2000 approached, people eagerly anticipated the new … and the possibilities it would bring.
A) millennium B) milenium C) millenium D) milennium

27. The old … on the hill has gravestones dating back to the 18th century, and it's a peaceful place for reflection.
A) cemetery B) cemetory C) cemetry D) cemetary

28. For the sake of …, she decided to use the self-checkout lanes at the grocery store to avoid waiting in line.
A) conveniense B) convaniance C) conveniance D) convenience

29. Though he was fluent in Spanish, he struggled with the correct … of some of the more difficult words.
A) pronounciation B) pronunciation C) pronounciacion D) pronunciacion

30. It's easy to … your achievements when telling a story, but honesty is always the best policy.
A) exagerate B) exaggerrate C) exagerrate D) exaggerate

VI. For questions 31-50, read and choose the best answer.

31. I'm absolutely knackered. I spent the entire day running …
A) work. B) chores. C) tasks. D) errands. E) activities.

32. … is the only novel authored by Oscar Wilde.
A) The Importance of Being Earnest B) The Picture of Dorian Gray
C) A Woman of No Importance D) An Ideal Husband
E) The Duchess of Padua

33. Upon further interrogation, the convict admitted to … the legal documents.
A) doing forgery B) being forged C) having forged
D) be forging E) have forging

34. What does the Olympics motto 'Citius, Altius, Fortius – Communiter' mean in English?
A) Faster, Higher, Stronger – Together.
B) Pace, Elevation, Strength – Community.
C) Bigger, Better, Stronger – United.
D) Dream, Believe, Achieve – Commemorate.
E) Strength, Growth, Victory – Unity.

35. Why have you suddenly gone so quiet? Did the … get your tongue?
A) bat B) bird C) cat D) dog E) rat

36. Our sun is primarily composed of …
A) helium. B) oxygen. C) carbon. D) hydrogen. E) nitrogen.

37. People often … her introversion as rudeness.
A) mistake B) misinterpret C) mislead D) miscalculate E) mismatch

38. Which of the following is not a field in which a Nobel Prize is awarded?
A) Literature. B) Chemistry. C) Medicine.
D) Environmental Sciences. E) Economic Sciences.

39. Settling into a new country is easier said than …

A) to do. B) done. C) doing.
D) is done. E) it did.

40. Agatha Christie's play, The Mousetrap derives its title from which Shakespearean play?

A) Macbeth. B) Hamlet. C) A Midsummer Night's Dream.
D) Julius Caesar. E) The Tempest.

41. You know he can't be trusted. Why you gave him another chance is … me.

A) beside B) behind C) beneath
D) beyond E) before

42. The smallest bone in the human body, the stapes, is located in…

A) the eye. B) the nose. C) the little toe.
D) the ear. E) the neck.

43. … I know, VIP ticket-holders can enter the arena an hour earlier.

A) As much as B) In so far as C) So far as in D) Such far as E) In as far as

44. Which science-fiction author devised the 'Three Laws of Robotics'?

A) H.G. Wells. B) Kurt Vonnegut. C) Isaac Asimov.
D) Philip K. Dick. E) Ray Bradbury.

45. He more than … for his early defeats with a brilliant show in the knockouts.

A) made up B) put up C) made way
D) gave in E) pulled in

46. Which UK city is known as 'The City of Dreaming Spires'?

A) Cambridge. B) Edinburgh. C) Oxford.
D) Nottingham. E) Manchester.

47. Noah really … his father with his love of music.

A) looks like B) looks after C) takes after
D) takes like E) seems like

48. Google was founded in …

A) 2001. B) 1998. C) 1984.
D) 2012. E) 1980.

49. 'Songs of Innocence and of Experience' is a collection of poems by …

A) William Wordsworth. B) Robert Frost. C) Emily Dickenson.
D) William Blake. E) Edgar Allan Poe.

50. I speak without a mouth and hear without ears. I have no body, but I come alive with the wind. What am I?

A) An AI assistant. B) An echo. C) A mirror image.
D) Music. E) A book.